Re: Peter Zonis v. Lizzie Grubman, et al.
Case No. 20 Civ. 7181 (JMF)(SLC)

Dear Magistrate Judge Cave:

This firm is counsel to Lizzie Grubman in the above-referenced action. I write with reference to both this Court's Order of June 10, 2021 (Dkt. # 53), scheduling a telephonic settlement conference for June 22, 2021, and Judge Furman's subsequent Order of June 14, 2021 (Dkt. # 56) (issued following my firm's appearance on June 11, 2021 as Ms. Grubman's counsel in the litigation), expressing Judge Furman's view that it would be appropriate for Ms. Grubman to participate in the settlement conference and directing the parties to confer and "if necessary, file an application for an adjournment of the conference addressed to" Your Honor. As contemplated by those Orders, I write to respectfully request an adjournment of the settlement conference in light of the unavailability on June 22nd of both the undersigned, as I have been summoned for jury duty beginning on June 21, 2021 in the New York State Supreme Court, and Ms. Grubman, who has a longstanding personal family commitment out of state on that day that likewise will preclude her participation in the conference as presently scheduled.

As directed by Your Honor's June 10 Order, the undersigned and Elizabeth Eilender, Esq., counsel to defendants Douglas Elliman Realty, LLC, Howard Lorber and Neal Sroka, jointly telephoned Your Honor's Chambers this afternoon to advise of this request and to propose that the settlement conference be adjourned to July 12, 13 or 14, or early August, 2021. In light of both Ms. Eilender's significant difficulties in communicating with the pro se plaintiff by telephone, of which Ms. Eilender recently apprised the Court, and the prior direct communications by Your Honor's Chambers with Mr. Zonis, we have not conferred with plaintiff concerning the present adjournment request. We have, however, sent Mr. Zonis a copy of this letter by FedEx overnight delivery addressed to him at the address listed on the docket of this action.

This is Ms. Grubman's first request for an adjournment of the settlement conference. The requested adjournment will not affect any other previously scheduled hearings or deadlines in this action.

We thank Your Honor for your considered attention to the foregoing.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ John J. Rosenberg
